ARTICLE 13 - DISCHARGE, SUSPENSION AND DISCIPLINE

13.01 Principle of Innocence

Both parties agree that an employee is considered innocent until proven guilty. Therefore, in the event the Employer initiates a disciplinary action against an employee who has completed their probationary period and which may result in the suspension or discharge of the employee, the following procedure must be followed.

13.02 Discipline Procedures

The employee shall be notified in writing of the action and/or penalty. If the employee challenges the Employer's decision, a copy of the Employer's notice shall be sent to the secretary of the Union and the employee. The employee shall continue their employment with all rights and privileges, unless an arbitration board upholds the Employer's request to discipline the employee in the manner outlined in the notice. This clause shall not restrict the Employer from suspending an employee after the grievance procedure is used and banking the full pay and benefits of the employee until this issue is resolved through the arbitration procedure.

13.03 Burden of Proof

In cases of discharge and/or discipline, the burden of proof of just cause shall rest with the Employer. In the subsequent grievance or arbitration, evidence shall be limited to the grounds stated in the discharge or discipline notice to the employee.

13.04 Warning

Whenever the Employer or its authorized agent deems it necessary to censure an employee in a manner indicating that dismissal may follow any further infraction, or may follow if such employee fails to bring their work up to a required standard by a given date, the Employer will present the censure in written form to the employee. If challenged by the employee, the Employer shall give written particulars of such censure to the Secretary of the Union within ten (10) working days.

The Employer shall only discipline an employee for a just cause.

13.05 Political Action

No employee shall be disciplined for participation in any political action(s) called for by the Canadian Labour Congress, its affiliates, or subordinate bodies. If such action is taken, the Union shall provide the Employer with reasonable advance notice and participate in developing appropriate arrangements to ensure the continued operation of the Agency.

13.06 Reports Relating to Disciplinary Action

When a report pertaining to an employee's work performance or conduct which may be detrimental to the employee's advancement or standing with the Employer is placed on that employee's personnel file, the employee shall be given the opportunity, within 10 working days, to sign the report in question and indicate that its contents have been read.

The employee has the right to reply to such a report and that reply shall become part of the employee's file.

The employee has the right to have a copy of the report forwarded by the Employer to the Union Steward or Union Unit President.

If the employee wishes to grieve over the contents of the adverse report, such grievance shall be initiated within thirty (30) working days of the date the report was signed by the employee.

The record of an employee shall not be used against the employee at any time after twelve (12) months following a suspension or disciplinary action, including letters of reprimand or any adverse reports. The records shall be destroyed provided no additional adverse reports are written within the twelve (12) month period with the exception of any disciplinary action that was reported to college of early childhood educators where AFCS has an obligation to report and retain the record until a hearing has been completed by the college.

Failure to grieve previous discipline, or to pursue such a grievance to arbitration, shall not be considered an admission that such discipline was justified.

The Employer agrees not to introduce as evidence in a grievance procedure relating to disciplinary action any document or written statement from the file of the employee the content of which the employee is not aware of at the time of filing of the grievance.

13.07 Right to Have Steward Present

An employee shall have the right to have their Steward present at any discussion with supervisory personnel which the employee believes might be the basis of disciplinary action. Where a supervisor intends to interview an employee for disciplinary purposes, the supervisor shall so notify the employee in advance of the purpose of the interview in order that the employee may contact their Steward to be present at the interview.

The Employer shall maintain a seniority list showing the date upon which each employee's service commenced. An up-to-date seniority list shall be sent to the Union and posted with the child care agency in January of each year. A separate list will be kept for temporary employees.

14.03 Probation for Newly Hired Employees

A newly hired employee shall be on probation for a period of six (6) months from the date of hiring. After three (3) months, the Employer shall review the work performance of the employee and submit the evaluation to the employee. After six (6) months, if performance is assessed as unsatisfactory, another written evaluation will be given to the employee and the six (6) month probationary period may, at the discretion of the Executive Director, be extended for up to an additional six (6) months, provided that both the employee and the Executive Director agree that this additional time on the job may result in the employee moving to an acceptable level of performance. During the probationary period, the employee shall be entitled to all rights and benefits of this Agreement. After completion of the probationary period, seniority shall be effective from the beginning of the probationary period.

14.04 Loss of Seniority

However, vacancies arising from normal retirement shall be posted thirty days prior to the employee's retirement date. The Employer shall make every effort to ensure that vacancies are filled as quickly as possible.

15.02 Information in Postings

15.03 Outside Advertising

In order to facilitate filling vacancies as quickly as possible, and where mutually agreed upon, outside advertising for any vacancy may take place at the same time job positions are posted as outlined in Article 15.01, but no application received as a result of such outside advertising will be considered until the applications of present employees of the Agency have been fully processed.

15.04 Role of Seniority in Promotions and Transfers

Both parties recognize:

- 1) the principle of promotion within the service of the Employer.
- 2) the job opportunity should increase in proportion to length of service.

In the event of an appointment from within the bargaining unit, the appointment shall be made within three weeks of the posting. The job shall be filled within three weeks of the appointment.

15.05 Trial Period

After three (3) months, the Employer shall review the work performance with the employee and provide the employee with a written evaluation. Conditional on satisfactory performance, the employee shall be declared permanent after the six (6) month period. In the event the promoted employee is unable to reach a satisfactory level of performance in the position during the trial period, or if the employee chooses to return to their former position, the employee shall be returned to the former position and wage and salary rate without loss of seniority. Any other employee temporarily promoted or transferred because of the re-arrangement of positions shall also be returned to their former positions without loss of seniority.

15.06 Notification to Employee and Union

Within seven working days of the date of appointment to a vacant position, the name of the successful applicant shall be posted on a bulletin board.

- b) The employee who has received a notice of lay-off can displace another employee who has lesser bargaining unit seniority provided the employee originally subject to lay-off has the knowledge, ability and qualifications to meet the normal requirements of the job with no additional training required, other than a general orientation. An employee so displaced shall be deemed to have been laid off and shall be entitled to notice in accordance with Article 16.05. An employee who chooses to exercise the right to displace another employee with lesser seniority shall advise the Employer of their intention to do so and the position claimed within seven (7) days after receiving the notice of lay-off.

In the event that an employee chooses to bump into a job classification and program with more than one incumbent, the employee shall bump the least senior employee in that job classification and program. However, an employee will not be required to bump the least senior employee in a program and job classification if the employee can better protect more attributes of the job (i.e. number of hours of work) by bumping another junior employee in the same job classification and program.

It is understood that employees cannot improve their job status (e.g. move from part-time to full-time or by moving to a higher-paying position) through the bumping procedure caused by a lay-off.

It is understood that employees retain their seniority when they move within the organization.

16.03 Recall Procedures

Employees shall be recalled in the order of their seniority provided that employees have the qualifications for the job to which they are called. When a vacancy occurs, employees on the recall list shall be notified of the vacancy by registered letter and shall be given the opportunity to exercise their seniority rights in making application for the vacancy. Employees who refuse a permanent position will be removed from the recall list. Employees may refuse one temporary vacancy and still remain on the recall list. Job sharing shall be limited to one position per program unless the Employer agrees otherwise.

Two employees (permanent, temporary or casual) may apply to the employer to share one (1) full-time position for a period of one (1) year in accordance with subsection (h) and with the following provisions:

- a) A formal proposal must be presented to the Employer outlining the specifics of the job-sharing arrangement. This proposal must be submitted to the Employer at least two (2) months in advance of the proposed start date. This time limit may be shortened by mutual agreement. The Employee(s) making the job-sharing proposal will be referred to as the team members for the duration of this article.
- b) A schedule must be submitted to the Employer, or the Employer's representative, outlining the proposed hours of work for each team member for a complete calendar month not less than one (1) week before the schedule is to take effect. This schedule will reflect a sharing of the hours of work as defined in Article 17.01 of this Collective Agreement, and the paid holidays (if any) as defined in Article 19 of this Collective Agreement. The Employer or the Employer's representative will not arbitrarily refuse a proposed schedule or exercise unfair or discriminatory judgement in approving this schedule.
- c) The Employer shall continue to pay eligible benefits as outlined in this collective Agreement, for each team member.
- d) Statutory holidays, sick, vacation and special leave shall be pro-rated.
- e) Team members shall be responsible for replacing each other during vacation leave, when necessary. Job sharing members shall not be responsible to replace each other for any other leaves, unless agreed to by the members.
- f) The job-sharing arrangement may be implemented for up to one (1) year. Review periods shall be scheduled within this period at the arrangement of the Employer and the team members. The job-sharing arrangement may be terminated with just cause by the Employer or by either team member at any time during the term provided that at least one (1) calendar month notice is given. If the job-sharing arrangement is terminated for any reason, both team members shall return to their original position. The job-sharing positions may be extended, if mutually agreed.
- g) Should the job-sharing arrangement continue in effect after the expiration of the year, it shall remain in effect for a further year or until such time as either party provides at least one (1) calendar month notice to terminate this agreement.
- h) If one team member vacates the job-sharing arrangement for any reason, the position reverts back to a full-time position.
