8.03 Permission to Leave Work

The Union understands and agrees that a Steward is employed to perform work for the Employer and that a Steward will not leave their work during working hours except to perform their duties under this Agreement. It is agreed that the services of a Grievance Mediation Officer will only be retained on the written consent of both parties. In the event a Grievance Mediation Officer is appointed, a referral to arbitration shall be delayed until after the grievance Mediation Officer has conducted a meeting of the parties. The parties shall jointly share the expense of the Grievance Mediation Officer.

9.02 Failing settlement to any question raised under the Grievance Procedure, the matter shall be submitted to a sole arbitrator for final resolution. The party submitting the grievance to arbitration may apply to the Minister of Labour through the Office of Arbitration to appoint a sole arbitrator or may consult with the other party to explore the possibility of mutually agreeing to the appointment of a particular sole arbitrator.

- 9.03 The fees and expenses of the sole arbitrator shall be shared equally by the Employer and the Union.
- 9.04 The decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding upon the Employer, the Union and the employees in the bargaining unit.

In the event that an employee is disciplined or discharged, such employee shall have the right to discuss the action taken by the Employer with their Steward before being required to leave the Employer's premises. Both the employee and the Union shall be advised as soon as is reasonably possible, in writing, by the Employer of the reason for disciplinary action or discharge.
- 10.02 Disciplinary action to an employee will be removed from the employee's file if no other disciplinary action of a similar nature is taken against the employee for a period of eighteen (18) months.

  - (b) written warning;
  - (c) suspension;
  - (d) discharge.

It is expressly acknowledged that in certain circumstances, the nature of the employee's misconduct or unsatisfactory work performance may warrant a repetition of any of the steps of the progressive disciplinary procedure while at the same time more serious forms of misconduct or unsatisfactory work performance may justify a by-passing of any or all of the steps in the progressive disciplinary procedure.

10.06 Rules and Regulations

The Union and employees acknowledge that the Employer may establish reasonable rules and regulations from time to time, provided advance notice of such rules and regulations has been given to both the Union and the employees affected.

ARTICLE 11 - SENIORITY

11.01 Seniority for a full time employee is defined as the length of service in the bargaining unit from last date of hire which includes service prior to the certification of the Union.

11.02 Seniority for a part time employee is defined as the accumulation of hours paid. In no case shall a part time employee be able to accumulate more seniority in a given year than the equivalent of one (1) year of full time seniority.

11.03 Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, seniority shall be used to determine preference or priority in promotions, lay-off and recall, vacation, hours of work, overtime distribution and job transfer.

11.04 Seniority in Lay-off and Recall

A layoff shall be defined as a reduction in the work force or a reduction in the regular hours of work as defined in this agreement.

Both parties recognize that job security shall increase in proportion to length of service. Therefore, in the event of a layoff, employees shall be laid off in the reverse order of their bargaining unit-wide seniority, provided those who remain are able to meet the normal requirements of the job. Employees shall be recalled in the order of their seniority.

An employee about to be laid off may bump any employee with less seniority, providing the employee exercising the right is qualified to perform the work of the employee with less seniority. The right to bump shall not include the right to bump up.

11.05 Unless legislation is more favourable to employees, the Employer shall notify, in writing, employees who are to be laid off at least ten (10) working days prior to the effective date of lay-off.   - (d) If the employee fails to return to work within seven (7) calendar days following a lay-off and after being notified by registered mail to do so, unless the employee was unable to do so by reason of sickness or other just cause;
  - (e) If the employee is laid off for a period longer than eighteen (18) months or the employee's accumulated seniority, whichever is the lesser;
  - (f) If the employee fails to perform any work for the Employer for any reason other than lay-off for a period greater than twenty-four (24) months, except when receiving compensation for an injury arising out of employment with the Township of Stirling-Rawdon, in which case the period referred to above shall be thirty-six (36) months.

- 11.08 New employees shall serve a probationary period of six (6) months or nine hundred and sixty (960) hours before acquiring seniority rights under this Agreement save and except Article 11.04. During the probationary period, the termination of a probationary employee shall be at the sole discretion of the Employer. In the event that a new employee successfully completes the probationary period, then that employee's seniority shall be back-dated to the last date of continuous hire or in the case of a part time employee their accumulated paid hours.
- 11.09 An employee who accepts a temporary position outside of the bargaining unit shall continue to accumulate seniority for the period they are outside the bargaining unit for up to six (6) months. If the employee remains outside the bargaining unit beyond six (6) months in a temporary position their seniority shall be frozen. The Employer will deduct and remit Union dues, to the amount the employee was paying prior to accepting the temporary position. When the employee returns to the bargaining unit, they shall resume accumulating seniority.
- 11.10 An employee who accepts a permanent position outside the bargaining unit shall have their seniority frozen for a period of six (6) months. If the employee remains outside of the bargaining unit beyond the six (6) month period they shall lose their seniority.

ARTICLE 12 - JOB POSTINGS AND STAFF CHANGES

- 12.01 When a vacancy occurs or a new position is created inside the bargaining unit, the Employer shall notify the Union in writing, post the position internally, and post the notice of the position on the bulletin boards for a minimum of one (1) week.
- 12.02 Each job posting shall contain the following information:
- Nature of position, qualifications, required knowledge and education, skills, shift, wage or salary rate or range, and when the duties and responsibilities will commence.
- 12.03 In selecting a suitable applicant, the Employer shall consider the qualifications, skill and ability of all applicants. When these factors are relatively equal between two or more candidates, the senior employee shall be given the job. If no suitable application is received, the Employer reserves the right to hire.
- 12.04 Should a successful applicant be found incapable of performing the duties of the available position or should the employee find the position unsuitable, then the applicant shall be returned to their former position at the end of a ninety (90) day trial period which immediately follows the date of appointment. The trial period may be extended by mutual consent by the Union and the Employer.
