ARTICLE 1 – PURPOSE OF AGREEMENT

- 1.01 The general purpose of this Agreement is to establish and maintain collective bargaining relations between the Employer and its employees and to establish and maintain mutually satisfactory working conditions, hours of work and wages, and to provide procedures for the prompt and equitable disposition of grievances for all employees who are subject to the provisions of this Agreement.
- 1.02 The parties recognize that the Employer and employees provide services to assist persons without housing to achieve independence, self-reliance, and community participation.

ARTICLE 2 – MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

- 2.01 The Union acknowledges and recognizes that the Management of the Employer and the direction of the working force are fixed exclusively with the Employer and shall remain solely with the Employer except as specifically limited by an express provision of this Agreement.

Without restricting the generality of the foregoing, the Union acknowledges that it is the exclusive function of the Employer to:

- (a) Maintain order, discipline, and efficiency.
- (b) Hire, assign, retire, discharge, direct, promote, demote, classify, transfer, layoff, recall and suspend or otherwise discipline Employees provided that a claim of discipline or discharge without just cause by an Employee who has completed their probationary period may be the subject of a grievance and dealt with as hereinafter provided.
- (c) In the interest of efficient operation and highest standard of service, determine classifications and introduce new jobs, determine contents of jobs and number of Employees required to perform any job or function, allocate and assign work, determine hours of work, and the working establishment for any service.
- (d) Determine the number and qualifications of personnel required, services to be performed and the methods, procedures, and equipment to be used in connection therewith.
- (e) Make and enforce and alter, from time to time, rules, and regulations to be observed by all Employees.

It is agreed that these rights shall not be exercised in a manner inconsistent with the express provisions of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 3 – RECOGNITION

3.01 Bargaining Unit

The Employer recognizes the Canadian Union of Public Employees as the bargaining agent of all employees of Cornerstone Community Association Durham Inc. working in and out of the City of Oshawa, save and except managers and persons above the rank of manager.

3.02 Work of the Bargaining Unit

- (a) Employees whose jobs are not in the bargaining unit shall not work on any jobs which are normally done by a person in the unit except for the purpose of instruction or in emergencies or when regular employees are not available and provided the aforementioned work does not reduce the hours of work or pay of any employee.
- (b) Volunteers may be used by the Employer provided that the use of volunteers does not displace or reduce hours of work of the bargaining unit employees. When requested, the employer will advise the union at Labour/Management meetings of the agency's use of volunteers including the type of services performed and their locations.

3.03 No Other Agreements

No employee shall be required or permitted to make a written or verbal Agreement with the Employer or their representative that may conflict with the terms of this Collective Agreement.

3.04 Union Representatives

- (a) The Employer agrees to recognize four (4) Union stewards, elected, or appointed from among the employees in the bargaining unit who have completed their probationary period.
- (b) The duty of the steward shall be to represent employee(s) and to process grievances as outlined in the grievance procedure of this Agreement.
- (c) The Union will inform the Employer, in writing, of the name of the stewards and of any subsequent changes and the Employer will not be required to recognize such stewards until notification from the Union has been received.
- (d) The Union acknowledges that Union stewards have regular duties to perform on behalf of the Employer and that union activity will normally be performed outside of working hours except where provided in this agreement. When justifiably necessary to perform duties as a Union steward during working hours, an employee shall not leave their regular duties without receiving permission from their supervisor. In such circumstances, permission will not be unreasonably denied.

- (e) At the time formal discipline is being imposed, an employee is entitled to be notified of their right to be represented by a Union representative. An employee will be advised in advance if the purpose of a meeting is to impose discipline. The parties agree that it is a good labour relations practice to ensure that a thorough investigation has been conducted, including an investigatory meeting with the employee, prior to the imposition of discipline.
- (f) With the approval of Management, which shall not be unreasonably denied, for other meetings, where there is more than one member of Management present, the employee shall be permitted to have a union representative present, at no additional cost to the employer.
- (g) The CUPE National Representative shall have access to the Employer's premises with the prior approval of the Executive Director or designate in order to deal with any matters arising out of this Collective Agreement. Such access shall not interfere with the operation or administration of the organization.
- (h) The Union agrees that there will be no union activities on the Employer's premises or use of the Employer's equipment, resources, materials, and facilities at any time except with the permission of the Employer or as specifically provided in this Agreement. It is acknowledged that use of the phone for local calls and email during breaks and meal periods may be assumed to have the Employer's permission provided such use does not interfere with the performance of duties.

3.05 No Union Meeting on Employer's Premises

The Union and the Employer agree that there will be no Union meetings on the Employer's premises except with prior approval by the Executive Director or designate or as specifically provided for in this Agreement.

ARTICLE 4 – HUMAN RIGHTS

4.01 It is agreed that there will be no discrimination by either party or by any of the employees covered by this Agreement on the basis of grounds prohibited s.5 (1) of the Ontario Human Rights Code.

4.02 The Employer and the Union agree that there will be no intimidation, discrimination, interference, or coercion exercised or practiced by either party or by any of their representatives or members because of any employee's activity or lack of activity in the Union.

4.03 Harassment and Violence in the Workplace

Every employee has the right to be free from harassment, bullying and violence at the workplace and from any reprisal or threat of reprisal for the rejection of such behaviour.

Harassment and Bullying is defined as objectionable conduct, comments, or displays by a person employed by the employer, either directly or indirectly that demean, belittle, or cause personal humiliation or embarrassment, that is directed at and offensive to another employee and which the person knows or ought reasonably to have known to be unwelcome to the recipient. There are three (3) categories of harassment: sexual harassment, discriminatory harassment, and workplace (bullying) harassment and the above three may be part of violence in the workplace

Sexual harassment includes conduct or comments of a sexual nature that the recipient does not welcome or that offend them. It also includes negative or inappropriate conduct or comments that are not necessarily sexual in nature, but which are directed at an individual because of their gender.

Discriminatory harassment includes comments or conduct based on the protected grounds in the Ontario Human Rights Code, which the recipient does not welcome or that offends them.

Workplace harassment is a health and safety issue that is covered under the Occupational Health and Safety Act. The Occupational Health and Safety Act (OHSA) define workplace harassment as engaging in a course of vexatious comment or conduct against a worker in a workplace that is known or ought reasonably to be known to be unwelcome.

Violence in the Workplace - "violence" means the attempted, threatened, or actual conduct of a person that causes or is likely to cause injury and includes any threatening statement or behavior that gives a worker reasonable cause to believe that individuals are at risk of injury. Violence includes the application of force, threats with or without weapons, severe verbal abuse and persistent sexual or racial harassment. It also includes incidents of domestic violence entering the workplace, stalking, personal harassment, psychological harassment, bullying or any other behavior that abuses, devalues or humiliates. It is understood that incidents of workplace violence, as defined in this section, can occur when working off-site and/or off duty.

Therefore, the parties agree that they will give their full support to the spirit and intent of the Human Rights Code of Ontario, and the OHSA as amended and/or other legislation that may be enacted from time to time, for the purpose of strengthening these rights. The parties agree that harassment and violence in the workplace will not be tolerated and will be dealt with in accordance with, and as defined by, the Ontario Human Rights Code and/or the OHSA.

Employees shall have access to an internal complaint procedure in accordance with the Employer's policy.

ARTICLE 5 – UNION DUES/INFORMATION REQUIREMENT

- 5.01 (a) It is understood that the employees that fall under the recognition clause in article 3.01 are subject to union dues. The Employer will inform all potential new employees of this fact.
- (b) The Employer will provide the Union with the names, addresses, and phone numbers of all bargaining unit employees. This information will be provided to the Union in January, April, July, and October.

ARTICLE 6 – CHECK-OFF OF UNION DUES

6.01 Check-Off Payments

The Employer shall deduct from every employee any dues, initiation fees or assessments levied by the Union on its members.

6.02 Deductions

Deductions shall be forwarded, in one cheque, to the National Secretary Treasurer of the Union not later than the fifteenth (15th) day of the following month for which the dues are levied. The cheque shall be accompanied by a list of the names, classifications, and gross earnings of the employees from whom the deductions have been made. The Employer shall be notified, in writing, at least forty-five (45) days prior to any required change in Union dues.

- 6.03 In consideration of the deducting and forwarding of Union dues in accordance with the foregoing by the Employer, the Union agrees to indemnify and save the Employer harmless against any claims or liability arising out of or resulting from the operation of this Article.

6.04 Dues Receipts

The Employer agrees to include the annual total of Union dues deducted on the T-4 slips of each Employee affected by this Article.

ARTICLE 7 – EMPLOYER & UNION SHALL ACQUAINT NEW EMPLOYEES

- 7.01 (a) The Employer shall, at the time of hiring, provide new Employees with a copy of the Collective Agreement.
- (b) The Union shall, within five (5) working days of hiring, provide new Employees with a list of Union representatives. The Union representative will be allowed fifteen (15) minutes during working hours to provide the list and talk to the new Employee.

ARTICLE 8 – CORRESPONDENCE

- 8.01 All correspondence from the Employer to the Union arising out of this Agreement shall be forwarded to the President and Sectional Chair of the Union or designate. The Union shall inform the Employer, in writing, of the name and email address of the Secretary of the Union and President of the Union and Sectional Chair of the Union and of any changes as they occur. All correspondence from the Union to the Employer arising out of this Agreement shall be forwarded to the Executive Director or designate.

ARTICLE 9 – LABOUR MANAGEMENT RELATIONS

9.01 Representation

The Union agrees to notify the Employer, in writing, of the names of the employee appointed or elected, pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, to Committees. No committee shall exceed three (3) members of the Union. The notice will contain the name and which committee they are representing the Union on.

9.02 Labour Management Committee

- a) It is agreed that a joint committee will be established with two (2) employees appointed from the bargaining unit and two (2) representatives of the Employer.
- b) The committee shall meet at least three (3) times per year to discuss matters of concern at a mutually agreed time and place unless otherwise mutually agreed. Additional meetings may be scheduled when requested by either party. Each party shall notify the other party of the proposed agenda items no later than one (1) week in advance of the meeting. The chairperson of the committee shall alternate between a Union member and an Employer member.
- c) Either party may invite a guest or observer so long as mutually agreed in advance.
- d) In meetings of the Labour Management Committee the Union shall have the right to be assisted by a representative of the Canadian Union of Public Employees.
- e) The purpose of the Labour Management Committee is to discuss items of concern to management or employees and to promote and maintain positive and co-operative labour relations between the parties. The committee shall not have the power to alter, amend or modify the specific terms of the Agreement.
- f) Employees serving on the Labour Management Committee shall not lose regular earnings for time spent attending meetings of the committee. Committee meetings will be held during regular working hours.

- g) It is understood and agreed that matters already filed through the grievance procedure will not be discussed at meetings of the Labour Management Committee.
- h) Minutes taken alternately by the Union and Management representatives must be approved by both parties prior to posting on the Union bulletin boards by Union members.

9.03 Time Off for Meeting

Meetings involving grievances or committees pursuant to this Agreement shall be at times and places agreed to between the Union and the Employer.

A grievor, or an employee whose participation is necessary at a meeting arranged between the Employer and the Union, shall not lose regular earnings for time spent attending the meeting.

9.04 Negotiating Committee

- (a) The Employer agrees to recognize a Negotiating Committee comprised of three (3) bargaining unit employees and the National Representative for the purpose of negotiating this Agreement or its renewal.
- (b) Once dates for negotiations have been confirmed, the Employer shall notify all management of the dates and the names of the Union bargaining team.
- (c) Employees serving on the Negotiating Committee shall be compensated for all time spent in bargaining with the Employer, for a cumulative total payment of up to seventy-two (72) hours of their regular straight time pay. Should bargaining exceed seventy-two (72) hours, the Employer shall consider approval of further cumulative hours. Such request shall not be unreasonably denied.

ARTICLE 10 – GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

- 10.01 For purposes of this Agreement, a grievance is defined as a difference concerning the interpretation, application, administration, or alleged violation of this Agreement, including any question as to whether a matter is arbitrable. All grievances shall proceed according to the following steps. At each step of the grievance procedure, the grievor shall have the right to be present.

10.02 Complaint

It is the mutual desire of the parties that all complaints and grievances be resolved as quickly as possible. It is understood that any employee may present an oral complaint at any time to their immediate supervisor without resorting to the grievance procedure below. However, if an employee files a grievance they must first discuss the matter informally with their supervisor to attempt to resolve the matter without a grievance.

10.03 Step 1

If the discussion referred to in Article 10.02 does not resolve the matter, the employee may submit a grievance in writing to their manager. The grievance shall describe the nature of the grievance, specify the article or articles of which a violation is alleged and indicate the relief sought. Such grievance must be submitted within ten (10) working days of the occurrence of the event which gave rise to the grievance or the date the employee ought reasonably to have become aware of the circumstances. A meeting will be held within five (5) working days of the submission of the grievance between the manager (or designate) and the Union at a mutually agreed time, after which a written response will be provided to the Union within five (5) working days.

Step 2

Failing settlement of the grievance at Step 1 the employee may present the grievance in writing to the Executive Director (or designate) within five (5) working days of the written response from the employee's manager/supervisor. The Executive Director (or designate) will meet with the Union within ten (10) working days at a mutually agreed time and render a decision in writing to the Union within five (5) working days following the meeting. The Union's National Representative will normally attend the meeting at Step 2 and may, with agreement in advance, attend at Step 1.

Step # 3 Grievance Mediation

Step # 3 of the grievance procedure is mediation at the request of either party. The request for Mediation shall be made within fifteen (15) days after the decision is received at Step # 2. The mediator must be mutually agreed upon by both parties.

No person acting as a mediator at this Step shall be appointed as an Arbitrator under article # 11 without the consent of both parties.

Costs of the mediator shall be shared equally by the Union and the Employer. Failing a satisfactory settlement being reached at Mediation, either party may refer the dispute to Arbitration within the time limits identified in Article 11 – Arbitration.

10.04 At any step of the grievance procedure, the time limits imposed upon either party may be extended by mutual agreement in writing. It is agreed that where the Employer fails to meet time limits for reply, as provided in this article, the matter will automatically be advanced to the next level.

10.05 Group Grievance

Where more than one (1) employee has the right to file a grievance in accordance with the above and arising out of the same set of circumstances, a group grievance may be filed by having all affected employees sign a written grievance at Step 1. Such grievance shall then be processed within the framework of the grievance procedure.

10.06 Policy Grievance

A grievance arising directly between the Employer and the Union concerning the interpretation, application or alleged violation of the agreement shall be treated as a grievance at Step 2 if the grievance is submitted in writing within five (5) working days following the circumstances giving rise to the grievance or the date the grieving party ought reasonably to have become aware of the circumstances. Where the grievance is an Employer grievance it shall be filed with a Local Union Steward. It is expressly understood that the provisions of this article may not be used with respect to a grievance directly affecting an employee which such employee could their self have instituted, and the regular grievance procedure shall not be thereby bypassed.

ARTICLE 11 – ARBITRATION

When either party wishes to submit a grievance to arbitration, it shall inform the other party within sixty (60) working days of the receipt of the written decision at Step 2 of the grievance procedure. If the grievance is not submitted to arbitration within sixty (60) working days from the time the reply is received, then the grievance will be deemed to have been abandoned unless the time limits have been extended by mutual agreement.

- 11.01 No matter may be submitted to arbitration, which has not been properly carried through all requisite steps of the grievance procedure.
- 11.02 The parties may agree to the use of a sole Arbitrator and the provisions of this article shall apply with any appropriate revisions. Where the parties do not agree to the use of a sole Arbitrator, the initiating party will indicate the name of their nominee to a Board of Arbitration. The recipient of the notice shall, within ten (10) working days thereafter, advise the initiating party, in writing, of its nominee to the Board of Arbitration. The two nominees shall select a third party to act as an impartial Chairperson of the Board of Arbitration.
- 11.03 No person may be appointed as an Arbitrator who has been involved in an attempt to negotiate or settle the grievance.
- 11.04 The decision of the sole Arbitrator, or the majority of the Board of Arbitration or, where there is no majority, the decision of the Chairperson, shall be final and binding upon the parties hereto and the employee or employees concerned.
- 11.05 The Board or sole Arbitrator shall not have any power to amend or add to any of the provisions of this Agreement.
- 11.06 Each of the parties will pay the expenses of that party's nominee. The parties will share equally the fee and expenses of the sole Arbitrator, or the Chairperson of the Board of Arbitration as the case may be.

ARTICLE 12 – DISCHARGE AND SUSPENSION

12.01 Discharge and Suspension Procedure

An Employee may be disciplined, suspended, or discharged, but only for just cause, unless otherwise provided in this Collective Agreement. Such Employee and the Union shall be notified, in writing, by the Employer of the reason for such discipline, suspension or discharge.

12.02 May Omit Grievance Steps

- (a) An Employee considered by the Union to be wrongfully or unjustly discharged or suspended shall be entitled to a hearing under Article 10 - Grievance Procedure. Step 1 of the grievance procedure shall be omitted in such cases.
- (b) An employee considered by the Union to be wrongfully or unjustly disciplined (other than suspension or discharge) shall be entitled to a hearing at Step 1 under Article 10 – Grievance Procedure. Complaint stage of the grievance procedure shall be omitted in such cases.

12.03 Burden of Proof

In cases of discharge and discipline, the burden of proof of just cause shall rest with the Employer.

12.04 Discipline, Discharge & Suspension

Where an employee has received no discipline for a period of nine (9) months, any disciplinary notation older than nine (9) months which is not related to a suspension shall be removed from the employee's file. In the case of warnings which accompany disciplinary suspensions, the notation will be removed from the employee's file where there has been no recurrence of a similar nature for a period of eighteen (18) months. Any leave of absence in excess of thirty (30) continuous calendar days will not count towards the periods referenced above.

12.05 Discipline

In the event that the Employer deems it appropriate to discipline an Employee, the discipline must be provided within twenty (20) working days of the incident. The Employer shall notify the Employee and the Sectional Chair as soon as they begin to investigate a matter that may lead to discipline. It is understood that the twenty (20) working days shall not apply when there is an investigation by a third party, the employer, a harassment investigation, or the employee is on an approved leave of absence.

ARTICLE 13 – SENIORITY

13.01 Seniority Defined

- (a) Full-time seniority is defined as the length of service with the Employer and shall include service with the Employer prior to the certification or recognition of the Union.

Part-time seniority is defined as all hours worked in the bargaining unit and shall include service with the Employer prior to the certification or recognition of the Union. It is agreed for the purposes of seniority, 1920 hours worked in the bargaining unit shall equal one (1) year.

It is further agreed that should a part-time employee be the successful applicant for a full-time position, the total hours will be divided by 1920 to represent seniority in years.

If a full-time employee is the successful applicant for a part-time position, years of seniority shall be multiplied by 1920 to determine the overall seniority in hours worked.

No calculation on conversion of seniority shall result in the employee being credited more than 1920 hours (one [1] year) per calendar year.

- (b) Seniority shall be used in determining preference or priority for promotion, transfer, demotion, layoff, permanent reduction of the workforce, and recall, as set out in other provisions of this Agreement.
- (c) Seniority shall operate on a bargaining unit-wide basis.

13.02 Seniority List

The Employer shall maintain a seniority list showing the current classification, seniority hours and the date upon which each Employee's service commenced. An up-to-date seniority list shall be sent to the Union, posted electronically, and circulated to staff quarterly. They shall be posted in January, April, July, and October by the end of the month.

13.03 Probationary Employee

A full-time newly hired employee shall be on probation for the first three (3) calendar months, or five hundred (500) hours worked whichever comes first. A newly hired part-time employee shall be on probation for the first five hundred (500) hours of work or six (6) months, whichever occurs first. The release or discharge of a probationary employee during the probationary period is at the discretion of the Employer and shall not be the subject of a grievance or arbitration, unless discrimination in violation of Article 4 is alleged. The standard of "just cause" shall not apply to a probationary release. After completion of the probationary period seniority shall be effective from the original date of employment. The probationary period of any new employee may be extended up to an additional three (3) months upon mutual agreement, in writing, between the Employer and the Union and the employee.

13.04 Loss of Seniority

Seniority shall be lost, and employment deemed terminated if the employee:

- (a) is discharged (and the discharge is not reversed through the grievance/arbitration procedure).
- (b) resigns or retires.
- (c) fails to notify in writing the Employer of the employee's intentions within seven (7) calendar days and fails to report for work within fourteen (14) calendar days after issuance of notice of recall by registered mail to the employee's last address on record with the Employer.
- (d) uses a leave of absence for a purpose other than that for which it was granted.
- (e) overstays a vacation or leave of absence without securing the extension of such leave of absence or vacation from the Manager unless a satisfactory reason is provided to the Employer.
- (f) is absent from work for three (3) days without providing a satisfactory reason to the Employer.
- (g) is laid off for a period in excess of eighteen (18) months.
- (h) if an employee is absent from work due to disability for a period of twenty-four (24) months, provided compliance with applicable legislation has been met.

13.05 Transfer and Seniority Outside Bargaining Unit

No employee shall be transferred to a position, outside the bargaining unit without their consent. If an employee is transferred to a non-union position outside the bargaining unit, they shall retain their seniority accumulated up to the date of leaving the unit but will not accumulate any further seniority. Such employee shall have the right to return to a position in the bargaining unit during their trial period, which shall be a maximum of twelve (12) months. If an employee returns within a twelve (12) month period to the bargaining unit, they shall be placed in a job consistent with their skill and ability. If after twelve (12) months have gone by and an employee returns to a position in the bargaining unit, they will have no seniority for the purpose of this Agreement. However, they will be allowed their service with the Employer for the purpose of this Agreement (for example, vacation benefits and wage progression).

It is agreed that no employee shall be bumped out of their position or laid off from their position should an employee who was transferred to a non-union position choose to return to the bargaining unit or be returned by the Employer, or upon completion of the work.

13.06 Seniority While on Long-Term Disability

An Employee who is on Long-Term Disability (LTD) and is medically able to return to work shall be returned to their own position if able to return within the first twelve (12) months of being off. An employee who is able to return to work in the thirteenth (13th) month or thereafter, shall be placed in the first (1st) available job which they are qualified to do, within the employ of the Employer.

Subject to Article 13.04 (h):

Full-time employees shall continue to accumulate seniority for the first twelve (12) months, then shall only retain seniority. Part-time employees shall accumulate seniority for the first twelve (12) months based on their average hours in the previous year then shall only retain seniority.

13.07 Seniority for Part Time Staff on Medical Leave

A part-time employee who is off work because of a medical leave shall accumulate seniority for the first twelve (12) months based on their average hours in the previous year then shall only retain seniority.

ARTICLE 14 – PROMOTIONS AND STAFF CHANGES

14.01 (a) Job Postings

When a position is created, or when a vacancy of a temporary or permanent nature occurs in a classification within the bargaining unit, the Employer shall notify the Union President or designate in writing and post notice of the position at each work location and the intranet home page for a minimum of one (1) week so that all staff members will know about the vacancy or new position. Temporary vacancies of less than three (3) months' duration need not be posted. Where funding for a temporary position is indeterminate, an extension not greater than three (3) months may be permitted provided the union agrees in writing.

Employees wishing to be considered for such new positions or vacancies shall make written application within the posting period.

(b) A position which has been held by an Employee who is on Long Term Disability shall be posted after twelve (12) months as per Article 14, if a vacancy is deemed to exist.

(c) The Union will be provided with a copy of all job postings when they are posted.

14.02 Information on Postings

Such notice shall contain the following information:

Job title, purpose, qualifications, required knowledge and education, skills, experience, general scheduling pattern, location of initial assignment and the rate of pay for the position.

14.03 Outside Advertising

Outside advertisement for any vacancy shall be placed only if there are no qualified internal applicants.

14.04 Role of Seniority in Promotions, Transfers and Staff Changes

Both parties recognize that in selecting employees for jobs which are posted, the Employer shall consider the following factors in determining which employee, if any, is to be awarded the posted job:

- 1) the seniority of each employee concerned.
- 2) qualifications, skills, and experience.

When the qualifications, skills, and experience are relatively equal between two (2) or more employees, seniority shall govern. The Employer may consider a combination of experience and education as equivalent to stated educational requirements.

14.05 Trial Period

A successful internal candidate shall be placed on a three (3) month trial period upon starting the new position during which time the employee's performance on the job will be reviewed. The result of the review will be in writing. If during the three (3) month trial period the Employer decides that the successful candidate cannot adequately perform the normal duties of the position, or if the employee is unable or unwilling to perform the duties of the new position, the employee will be returned to their former position, wage, or salary rate, without loss of seniority. Any other employee promoted or transferred because of the re-arrangement of positions will be returned to their former position, wage, or salary rate, without loss of seniority. It is agreed that the Employer will not arbitrarily return a successful candidate to their previous position.

14.06 Notification to the Employee and Union

The name of the successful applicant shall be posted at each work location and on the intranet and the Union President or designate will be so notified.

ARTICLE 15 – LAYOFFS AND RECALLS

15.01 Definition of Layoff

A layoff shall be defined as a reduction in the work force by the elimination of one or more bargaining unit positions that are occupied by employees at the time of elimination, or a reduction in the regular hours of work of a full-time employee for a period of one (1) month or longer.

15.02 Role of Seniority in Layoffs

Both parties recognize that job security shall increase in proportion to length of service. Therefore, in the event of a layoff, employees shall be laid off in the reverse order of their seniority within their classification and within the Program.

An employee about to be laid off may bump an employee within the same classification with less seniority, provided the employee exercising the right has the ability and qualifications required to perform the work. An employee so displaced, or an employee who cannot bump within their own classification, may then displace a less senior employee provided the employee exercising this right has the ability and qualifications required to perform the work. An employee exercising displacement rights must indicate their intention within five (5) working days of receipt of notice of layoff.

In the event a layoff occurs as per Article 15.01 the parties agree that employees in the same classification within the same Program shall be offered the opportunity to elect layoff. It is understood that an employee voluntarily electing to be laid off shall forfeit their bumping rights but will retain recall rights.

When the Employer identifies that reduction in staffing is necessary including reduction of hours as per 15.01, the Employer shall, prior to giving notice of lay off to employees, meet with the Union to discuss the situation and any possible means of minimizing staff impact.

15.03 Recall Procedure

The Employer shall recall employees in order of seniority to vacant bargaining unit positions for work which the employees can perform for a period of eighteen (18) months from date of layoff. Notice of recall shall be sent by registered mail to the last known address of the employee, who shall respond to the recall notice within seven (7) days.

15.04 No New Employees

New Employees shall not be hired until those who are qualified and laid off have been given an opportunity of recall.

15.05 Advance Notice of Layoffs
