If the answer is not acceptable to the Employer, the Employer may, within ten (10) working days from the date the President of the Union gives their answer, refer the dispute to arbitration by giving a written notice to the Union.

10.04 (a) Policy Grievance – It is agreed that in the case of any general allegation by the Union that the Employer has violated this Agreement in a manner that affects broad principles, rather than specific individuals, the Union may present the grievance, in writing, directly to the General Manager (or designate). Subsequent action will be governed by Steps 3 and 4 of the normal grievance procedure.

(b) Group Grievance - The Employer recognizes the Unions right to file a group grievance where there is an allegation of a violation of the Collective agreement that affects more than one employee and is factually the same. Such grievance(s) shall commence at step 2 of the grievance procedure and shall be submitted in writing on the proper, recognized form.

10.05 The parties to this Agreement are agreed that it is of the utmost importance to address complaints and grievances as quickly as possible. The Employer shall be under no obligation to consider or process any grievance unless such grievance has been presented to the Employer in writing within five (5) working days from the time the circumstances upon which the grievance is based were known, or reasonably ought to have been known by the Grievor or the Union, as the case may be.

10.06 Grievances or complaints arising under this Agreement shall be addressed or settled as follows:

Step One: Within five (5) working days from the time the circumstances upon which the grievance is based where known, or should reasonably be known, the Employee, together with a Union Representative shall first discuss ~~her~~ their grievance with the Employee's immediate Supervisor (or designate). The Supervisor shall give a decision within five (5) working days.

Step Two: Should the decision of the Supervisor (or designate) not be acceptable to the Employee, the grievance shall be referred to the Site Manager (or designate) within five (5) working days from the receipt of the decision of the immediate Supervisor (or designate) at Step One. The Site Manager (or designate) shall convene a meeting with the Employee and the Union Representative within five (5) working days following receipt of the grievance. The Site Manager (or designate) shall render a decision in writing within five (5) working days from the date of the meeting.

Step Three: If the decision of the Site Manager (or designate) at Step Three is not acceptable, the Union may refer the grievance to arbitration by notice in writing within twenty (20) working days from the date of the receipt of the decision at Step Three.

If a grievance is not submitted, or advanced from one step to another within the time limits in this Article, the grievance shall be deemed abandoned and all rights of recourse to the grievance and arbitration procedure shall be at an end. The time limits may be extended by mutual agreement in writing between the parties.

10.07 In the event that a grievance is submitted to arbitration, the grievance shall be heard by a single arbitrator. The Union and the Employer shall attempt to agree on the appointment of the arbitrator and if they are unable to agree within twenty (20) working days, either party may request that the Minister of Labour appoint the arbitrator.

10.08 The fees and expenses of the arbitrator shall be shared equally between the parties. Each party shall pay its own costs and the fees and expenses of its witnesses.

10.09 The decision of the Arbitrator will be final and binding upon the parties and Employees affected by the decision. The Arbitrator shall not have jurisdiction or the authority to add, delete or modify any provisions of this Agreement. Where the Arbitrator determines that an Employee has been disciplined or discharged by the Employer for just cause, the Arbitrator has power to substitute for the discharge or discipline any other penalty that to the Arbitrator seems just and reasonable in the circumstances.

10.10 Mediation may be used as an additional or an alternative process to arbitration with the mutual agreement of the Union and the Employer.

ARTICLE 11 – DISCIPLINE AND DISCHARGE

11.01 No Employee shall be disciplined or discharged without just cause.

11.02 Where the Employer determines that discipline or discharge shall occur the Employer will endeavor to notify the Employee at a meeting. Employees shall be notified in writing of the reasons for discipline or discharge. The Union shall be provided a copy of such letter(s).

11.03 Notwithstanding that the disciplinary procedure is progressive; there is certain conduct of an extremely serious nature which may lead to the immediate discharge of an Employee.

11.04 An Employee shall have the right to have their Union Representative present during any discussion with the Employer which the Employer believes might be the basis for disciplinary action. Where the Employer intends to meet with an Employee for disciplinary purposes, the Employer shall so notify the Employee in advance of the purpose of the meeting in order that the Employee may contact their Union Representative to be present at the meeting.

ARTICLE 12 – PROBATIONARY PERIOD

- 12.01 (a) The first six hundred forty (640) hours of work as an Employee, excluding orientation hours, shall be considered as the Probationary Period.
- (b) A Probationary Employee shall have the right to grieve. If a Probationary Employee is disciplined or dismissed at any time during the Probationary Period it shall be deemed to be for just cause and the Arbitrator shall not have the power to substitute any lesser discipline or penalty. A Probationary Employee shall be evaluated regularly during the Probationary Period.
- (c) All of the terms of this Agreement shall apply to Probationary Employees except where expressly stated otherwise.

ARTICLE 13 – SENIORITY

- 13.01 Seniority shall be used in determining preference or priority for promotion, transfer, demotion, lay-off, permanent reduction of the workforce, and recall, as set out in other provisions of this Collective Agreement.
- 13.02 Upon successful completion of the Probationary Period, an Employee shall have their seniority established as their first day of work as a Full-Time or Regular Part-Time Employee at Northumberland Hall.
- 13.03 (a) A seniority list shall be prepared and posted in January of each year, including the list of Casual employees with date of hire, with a copy provided to the Union. Any additions to the Seniority list(s), throughout the year, shall be sent to the President of the Local.
- (b) Within the thirty (30) days following a posting of the seniority list, an Employee in disagreement with their seniority thereon must indicate their disagreement in writing to their Supervisor. Within five (5) working days following, the Supervisor shall respond to the Employee in respect of the problem raised. Failing satisfactory response, or in the absence of a response, the Employee may submit a grievance at Step two (2) in accordance with the provisions of Article 10 Grievance Procedure, starting from the date the Supervisor gave or should have given their response.

- (c) In the event that more than one (1) Employee commences work on the same date and at the same hour, all such Employees shall have their seniority determined by a draw in the presence of the Union. Results of such draw are to be acknowledged in writing and signed off by the Union.

13.04 (a) Seniority is defined as the length of service with the Employer commencing with the Employee's date of hire to a Regular Part-time or Full-time position within the Bargaining Unit. Seniority shall operate on a bargaining unit wide basis.

- (b) Casual Employees as defined in Article 2 of this agreement shall compete by date of hire amongst themselves and date of hire shall be used for Casual Employees in regard to all references to seniority under this agreement.

13.05 Seniority shall cease and employment shall be deemed to be terminated for any of the following reasons:

- (a) if an Employee is discharged;
- (b) if an Employee voluntarily resigns;
- (c) if an Employee is absent for more than three (3) consecutive scheduled working days without a reasonable excuse;
- (d) if an Employee fails to report to work at the expiration of a leave of absence or maternity leave unless the Employee has advised the Employer of their inability to return to work with a reasonable excuse;
- (e) if after receiving notice of recall from a layoff, the Employee has failed to notify the Employer as to whether or not they will accept the recall within seven (7) calendar days;
- (f) if an Employee is laid off for twelve (12) consecutive months; or
- (g) if an Employee retires.

ARTICLE 14 – LAYOFF AND RECALL

14.01 Definition of Layoff

A layoff shall be defined as a reduction of the workforce or a reduction in the regular hours of work for a Full-Time or Regular Part-Time Employee.

14.02 Advanced Notice of Layoff

- a) Unless legislation is more favourable for the employee, employees shall be given two (2) weeks written notice of lay off. Where such notice is not given, the Employee shall receive pay in lieu of notice equivalent to the regular pay they would have otherwise earned during the notice period.
- b) A copy of the lay off notice shall be sent to the Union.

14.03 Layoff Procedure

Both parties recognize that job security shall increase in proportion to length of service. Therefore, in the event of a lay-off, employees shall be laid-off in the reverse order of seniority within the classification. An employee affected by a lay-off in the Employee's classification, may bump any employee with less seniority in the bargaining unit of the same or lower FTE, provided the employee exercising this option is qualified of performing the work of the less senior employee, within the notice period.

14.04 Training

On-the-Job Training Prior to a non-voluntary lay off occurring, the Employer shall assess each remaining existing Regular vacancy in the Bargaining Unit where it had been previously determined by the Employer that the displaced Employee could not meet the threshold requirements of the vacancy. Where the Employer determines that the displaced Employee could meet the threshold requirements of an existing Regular vacancy if provided with on-the-job training of up to eighty (80) hours (worked) in addition to the usual orientation period, the displaced Employee shall be offered the existing Regular vacancy with a requirement to complete the training.

14.05 Recall

a) Rights of Recall

During the recall period, laid off Employees shall have a right to be recalled to permanent positions for which the laid off Employee is qualified, and which have the same or less regular hours as they had at the time of layoff.

b) Maximum Recall Period

The maximum recall period shall be 24 months from the date of the layoff.

c) Order of Recall

Laid off Employees shall be recalled in order of seniority.

d) Current Address

Laid off Employees are responsible for leaving their current address and telephone number with the Employer.

e) Recall Notification

A laid off Employee shall be notified of the opportunity for recall in the most expeditious manner possible. Upon notice of recall, the laid off Employee must indicate to the Employer within forty-eight (48) hours of the recall notice being issued, the laid off Employee's intention to accept or decline the recall. If the laid off Employee accepts the recall, the laid off Employee must be available to return to the Employer within two (2) weeks of the notice of recall. If the laid off Employee rejects the opportunity for recall into a position, which has at least the same number of hours as their pre-laid off position, the laid off Employee's recall period shall end.

f) Recall to Less Hours

An Employee who accepts recall into a position outside of their original classification or which has less hours than their pre-laid off position, shall continue to have a recall right into their pre-laid off classification and hours for the duration of the 24-month recall period.

g) Casual Work after Recall

At the end of the recall period, a laid off Employee may apply in writing to continue to work as a Casual Employee.

h) Working During Recall Period

All laid off Employees shall indicate to the Employer whether or not the Employee is interested in the assignment of casual shifts during the period of recall. If a laid off Employee is interested in the assignment of casual shifts during the period of recall, the Employee may be added as casual during the recall period, and this will not affect the Employee's right to recall.

i) Grievance on Layoffs and Recall

Grievances concerning layoffs and recalls shall be initiated at Step 2 of the Grievance Procedure.

ARTICLE 15 – JOB POSTING

15.01 When a Full-Time or Regular Part-Time position is created, or a Full-Time or a Regular Part-Time vacancy occurs within a job classification which the Employer intends to fill (including a Temporary Position as outlined in Article 2.01 (i)) Employer shall post notice on a designated bulletin board for a minimum of seven (7) calendar days.

15.02 Each posting shall contain at a minimum the following information: the nature of the position, the location, rotation, qualifications, required education and hours of work.

15.03 If an Employee is interested in applying, an application, in writing, must be submitted directly to the Site Manager (or designate).

15.04 In determining the successful candidate when filling a vacant position, seniority shall be the determining factor where two or more candidates are deemed by the Employer to be relatively equal in their ability, skills, qualifications and demonstrated work performance to perform the required duties of the position. On request, an unsuccessful candidate (who has more seniority than the successful candidate) will be advised of the reason(s) why they were not successful.

15.05 No applications received from persons outside Northumberland Hall shall be considered until the applications of present Employees have been fully considered.

15.06 If an Employee is not successful in an application for a position, the Employer will, on request, meet with the Employee and explain the reason(s) why the Employee was not successful.

15.07 Should the successful candidate be an existing Employee; they shall be placed on a trial period for five hundred and forty (540) hours worked in their new position. If the Employer determines that they are unsatisfactory in their new position, or if the Employee feels that they are unable to perform their duties or the employee wishes to return to their former position prior to the expiration of the trial period, the Employee shall be returned to their former or equivalent position and salary and any other Employee promoted or transferred because of the rearrangement of positions shall be returned to their former or equivalent position and salary. Employees may only request to leave a new position within the five hundred and forty (540) hours worked if they have not requested to leave another position within the five hundred and forty (540) hours worked.

15.08 Within seven (7) calendar days of the date of appointment to a vacant position the Union shall be notified, and the name of the successful applicant shall be posted on designated Bulletin Boards.

15.09 The Employer and the Union recognize the values of diversity, equity and inclusion in the workplace, and agree to the principle of, and are committed to, establishing a workplace that is inclusive and diverse.

The Union and Employer may agree that specific job posting(s) be designated as only being eligible to applicants from one or more under-represented groups in the workforce: Indigenous peoples, Black/African Nova Scotians, people of African descent, people of colour, persons living with a disability/disabilities, gender, and persons of diverse sexual orientation and gender identity and/or expression. The Union shall agree or disagree with the Employer's request to designate job posting(s) within 10 working days of the Employer providing the Union with the rationale and bargaining unit seniority list. Eligible, qualified employees of the bargaining unit will be given preference over external applicants. If the position cannot be filled with qualified designated person, the position will be reposted and filled in accordance with Article 15.

Restrictions on Applications for Posted Positions

15.10 An Employee who is successful in applying for a posted temporary position may not apply for another posted temporary position while in the temporary position unless the temporary position would commence after the current temporary position concluded or unless the temporary position is for a greater number of hours or for a longer period of time. However, if a permanent vacancy arises they may apply.

Transfers out of the Bargaining Union - Restrictions and Rights

15.11 No Employee shall be transferred to a position outside the bargaining unit without their consent. If an Employee is transferred to a position outside of the bargaining unit, they shall retain their seniority accumulated up to the date of leaving the unit but will not accumulate any further seniority. Such Employee shall have the right to return to a position in the bargaining unit during their trial period, which shall be a maximum of sixty (60) days. If an Employee returns to the bargaining unit, they shall be placed in their former job, or failing that, in a job consistent with their seniority. Such return shall not result in the lay-off or bumping of an Employee holding greater seniority.

ARTICLE 16 – HOURS OF WORK AND OVERTIME

16.01 The hours of work for a Full-Time Employee will normally average eighty (80) hours bi-weekly over a schedule cycle. Subject to operational requirements, normal shifts for Full-time employees will generally be eight (8) or twelve (12) hours in duration.

- 16.02 (a) The work schedule for all Employees shall be posted in an appropriate place at least two (2) weeks in advance. Notwithstanding; such posting shall be made at least three (3) calendar weeks prior to Christmas Day, with a copy to the Union Secretary.
- (b) The Employer will endeavour to provide twenty-four (24) hours notice to an Employee when their hours of work as posted, within that pay period, have to be changed. If the hours of work are changed without twenty-four (24) hours notice and without the agreement of the Employee, the Employee shall receive overtime compensation for all the hours worked which have been changed. This Article applies only to a change in the posted schedule and not call-ins.
