

TRAINING FOR CUPE PENSION TRUSTEES The Fairmont Hotel Vancouver Vancouver, BC

March 27 – April 1, 2011 (for trustees and advisory committee members in defined benefit plans)

March 27 – March 29, 2011 (for trustees and advisory committee members in defined contribution plans)

CUPE is offering our seventh training session for union pension fund trustees and pension plan advisory committee members.

For the first time, we are offering training that meets the specific needs of committee members for DC plans.

This is an invaluable training for those new to the job of pension trustee. But experienced trustees will also benefit from the participatory, hands-on approach of this workshop to deepen their understanding of key issues.

Come and learn about:

For trustees and advisory committee members in DB plans:

- Fiduciary duty
- Assessing funding options
- Understanding valuable reports
- Assessing investment options

For committee members in DC plans:

- Your role as a committee member
- Member education about their pension plan
- Understanding investment reports
- Assessing investment options

If you are interested in taking part of this training session, please fill out the attached application form and send it no later than February 16th, 2011.

Registration fee for the session is $750.00

Participants are encouraged to ask their Pension Plan to sponsor their participation in this training session. For more information, see “A Guide to Getting Your Pension Fund to Cover the Cost” attached.

(Make cheque payable to the Canadian Union of Public Employees, Pension Trustee Training.)

The fee includes workshop materials, daily breakfast, lunch and refreshments at morning and afternoon breaks.

The fee does not cover lost wages (where applicable) to attend the session, travel costs, accommodation or dinner costs.

Once participants have been selected, we will contact them with hotel information.

The training session will start at 7:00 p.m. on Sunday March 27th.

SEE YOU AT THE SESSION!
